ONLY 80 YEARS FROM D-DAY TO WHAT WE ARE TODAY! /

THE SPIRIT OF LIBERTY!

Original Air Date: 06.07.24

NOTICE: The Brain Masseur has laryngitis and had to produce an encore show. The notes here are not the content of the show broadcast this week! The show was a combination of elements from Queer Planet Debunked and Christian Nationalism: An Examination Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

D-Day! June 6, 1944: the first ever land, sea, and air coordinated attack — the invasion that turned the tide of WWII. The letter D was used as a code for "the day" — the whole plan was called Operation Overlord, land and air was the Army arm of the invasion (that's before the US Air Force was formed), and the Naval arm had another designation: it was called Operation Neptune.

Everything was carefully planned; every i was properly dotted, and every t properly crossed. Only one item had yet to be decided upon, one blank left to fill in—on what Day would Ike call the charge? He chose June—5th. But one part of the plan was a variable that could not be scripted—weather. They needed a full moon, they needed an agreeable sea and sky, but the forecast for June 5th was stormy skies and seas. The Germans believed bad weather would prevail throughout June. Still, our forecasters believed there would be a break on the 6th—Ike pushed D-Day to June 6th, and so June 6th became D-Day—and the expression D-Day became synonymous with the invasion that turned the tide of WWII.^{1 2 3}

Our hats are off to the brave soldiers who fought and survived D-Day, and have survived these 80 years since:

Richard “Dick” Rung — 19 when he landed on Omaha Beach on June 6, 1944. Now 99, and has a clear memory of hosing down the deck of the blood of those killed. Omaha was “the most heavily defended and deadliest of the five landing areas.”⁴

Andy Negra, arrived on Normandy July 18, 1944. He is 100 years old.

Jim Gant, Charles Horn, 101 years old Papa Jake wheeled himself to the Normandy American Cemetery and spoke over the tombstones: “Thank you, guys. Thank you!”⁵ This war hero gave glory to GOD: “How is it possible that I went through five battles, plus landing on Omaha Beach without getting a scratch?” He testified that God protected him.

Floyd Blair, 103, a fighter pilot for the Army Air Corps. On D-Day, Blair flew two support missions across Omaha Beach.

Bob Gibson, 100, says he is living on borrowed time — hmmm! There is more meaning there than perhaps he knows! Talked about having to run over the dead bodies of his fellow soldiers who were killed before they even left the boat. He said, “You wake up at night every once in a while, too. It seems like somebody’s shooting at

[TRUTH]

Proverbs 29:2 ¶ When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

God said any nation that forgets Him will be turned into hell with the wicked they celebrate (Psalm 9:17).

Eighteen years after D-Day, On June 25, 1962, prayer was removed from school because it disrespected other religions. So, the court decided to disrespect Christianity to avoid disrespecting other religions. Patrick Henry famously said, “It cannot be emphasized too strongly or too often that this great nation was founded, not by religionists, but by Christians; not on religions, but on the gospel of Jesus Christ. For this very reason, peoples of other faiths have been afforded asylum, prosperity, and freedom of worship here.”⁸ Think about it! Can you think of any other religion that affords liberty to believe according to the dictates of your own conscience? (Don’t throw up the Inquisitions to me. The Roman

⁸ This is disputed by every liberal since about 2012, in the “America is no longer a Christian nation” era of Obama. system is not Christianity. It bears no resemblance to the early church.)

Every people's sense of morality forms a religion or is formed by it.

The Henry quotation is disputed by secularists and those inclined to believe them. So here are a few undisputed Henry quotes for you:⁹

“The liberties of a people never were, nor ever will be, secure, when the transactions of their rulers may be concealed from them.”

“Bad men cannot make good citizens. It is when a people forget God that tyrants forge their chains. A vitiated (spoiled, impaired) state of morals, a corrupted public conscience, is incompatible with freedom. No free government, or the blessings of liberty, can be preserved to any people but by a firm adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, frugality, and virtue; and by a frequent recurrence to fundamental principles.”

“The militia is our ultimate safety. We can have no security without it. THE GREAT OBJECT IS THAT EVERY MAN BE ARMED.”

“Our constitution is an instrument for the people to restrain the government.”

“Fear is the passion of slaves.”

Listen: “Were my soul trembling on the on the wing of eternity, were this hand freezing to death, were my voice choking with the last struggle, I would still, with the last gasp of that voice, implore you to remember the truth: GOD HAS GIVEN AMERICA TO BE FREE.”

“The eternal difference between right and wrong does not fluctuate; it is immutable.” Unchanging!

And with reference to our theme — the nation that forgets God will be turned into hell: Henry said, “It is when a people forget God that tyrants forge their chains.”

One June 6, 1944, American soldiers stormed the beaches of Normandy to fight the fascist Nazis who removed the Old Testament from the Bible,¹⁰ spied on preachers, jailed any who spoke against Hitler, and killed Bonhoeffer.

They fought to preserve us from what the secularist government is presently offering.

"We demand the freedom of all religious confessions in the state, insofar as they do not jeopardize the state's existence or conflict with the manners and moral sentiments of the Germanic race. The Party, as such, upholds the point of view of a positive Christianity without tying itself confessionally to any one confession. It combats the Jewish-materialistic spirit at home and abroad and is convinced that a permanent recovery of our people can only be achieved from within on the basis of the common good before individual good."¹¹

This sounds like a statement from Obama, or Biden, or Hillary — Christianity is fine so long as it does not “jeopardize the state’s existence.” Only in the present case, it must not jeopardize the power of the Democrat Party. And in the place of a prohibition against teaching that is in “conflict with the manners and moral sentiments of the Germanic race,” it’s a prohibition against teaching the conflicts with the manners and moral sentiments of the Queer community. A “Christianity” that bows to the state and to homosexual perversity is acceptable but not otherwise.

On July 1, 2017, 73 years after D-Day, they made gay marriage legal, claiming it is a human right. Human rights are inalienable and inherent in human nature. The only human right we have with regard to marriage would be what is present within human nature. Homosexuals have no “human right” to same-sex marriage any more than a human has a right to eat another human. Just because a human wants to eat another human, or only because they can do it, and it is argued doing so serves to feed an appetite — which is the natural function of eating — does not make one human eating another human some sort of human right.

So, in that sense, marriage is a human right. It is a right that descends from GOD, and it forms a divinely ordained human institution, which by Him designed to perpetuate the human race. The government, actually, has no business interjecting itself into this institution. Marriage is defined by the CREATOR; what homosexuals are doing will never be marriage — for the marriage bed is undefiled. The Queer bed will always be defiled. For society to recognize homosexual unions as marriage is an affront to the Creator; it is a major departure from Him. It’s the sort of thing a nation does when it forgets God.

On June 14, 2021, 77 years after D-Day, the reclassified pedophiles as minor-attracted-persons. Minor attracted persons are included within the Gay Pride movement and represented by their Gay Pride flag.

I am very encouraged by the swell rising against this — the Christians that are beginning to stand up and say, no, the rainbow is not yours. GOD gave the rainbow as a token of His promise not to destroy the world by flood, and it appears in the sky during rains as a reminder. Children and rainbows belong to GOD, not to the Queers.

Biden flies the Pride flag over the White House door way — placed it between two American flags — excuse me!

It is placed at the same height as the American flag and featured as the centerpiece of our national identity.

Ya think maybe Biden's America has forgotten God?

On December 12, 2022, 78 years after D-Day, Biden invited a drag queen to the White House who performs for children because it's educational.

On December 9, 2023, 79 years after D-Day, a statue to Baphomet was erected in the Iowa State Capitol by the Satanic Temple because not allowing this showed disrespect to their religion. A patriot who, like Judah's Josiah, tore down the wicked symbol of rebellion against the KING of kings

So, we've come to the end of what it means to forget GOD. Now the "state" is rejecting Christ and bowing the knee to Baphomet. It's only a matter of time before such a statue will appear on the White House lawn.

It's important to understand, however, that this is all coming not from Americans but from anti-Americans. The people doing this do not represent the core values and traditions of America as founded.

These people rage against the bands and cords of Christ and do all they can to break America away from Christ's RULE. Biden, Obama, and Hillary are forging the chains of tyranny, and it's up to us to stop them. It begins by remembering GOD.

It begins with a return to HIS HOUSE, the church, which is the pillar and ground of the truth.

It begins when we "Humble ourselves, and pray, and seek His face, and turn from our wicked ways" — THEN HE WILL HEAR FROM HEAVEN, FORGIVE OUR SINS, AND HEAL OUR LAND.

Remember D-Day, remember WHY we entered that war, remember FAITH of our FATHERS, REMEMBER "Our Father, which art in Heaven."

Hold on through the break! I'll be right back!

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march, an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

So, how did the Queer—D-Day—invasion of America come off? Did millions flock to see the movie? You noticed it; surely you have heard about it. Come on! I did. a show on this three weeks ago. You should hear it. God to brainmassage.net and find show no. 986. I think it's still in the featured shows slides. I don't think you'll find a more thorough or more accurate examination of the argument the Queers are putting forward to support their perversion of human sexuality.

Interesting, they intended to premier their documentary on June 6. Was it an accident that they selected D-Day for this attack on morality? I thought I'd check in on the stats — but, guess what? I can't find any. How did America respond to this?

They can create a fake facade that America is Queer, but it's not. And it's when they try something like this that becomes apparent. So long as it's all in the media and academia, they can create whatever illusion they want, but something like this is harder to fake.

I don't know what the viewer stats for the Queer's D-Day assault on traditional American values — apparently, it does not matter to very many whether queer behavior shows up in “nature”; Americans are not en masse buying the argument.

I mean, I don't know. I can't find any source that offers a comprehensive assessment of the impact Pride Month pushers have had on the broader community of Americans. Every event I did hear about had a response that was well below the organizers' hopes. The boast that Gay Pride would sizzle turned out to be a fizzle.¹² At least, that's what I'm left to believe since no one on the left wants to talk about it.

Folks, America is not queer! America is Straight! The Deep State operators want to destroy America, and part of this effort involves separating America from its Christian roots. Driven by the same spirit that drove Sodom to its destruction — the Demoncrat Party of the Deep State tries to push onto Americans what destroyed

Sodom. That is the agenda! The spirit operating in and through the children of disobedience wants to wipe human life off of this planet.

The Queer agenda is anti-human!

As a culture trends away from God, two things happen: its population decreases, and tyranny increases.

Look for policies and programs that result in decreasing the population and that increase the government's power over you. You will see Baphomet smiling behind them.

Patrick Henry argued for something to restrain the Congress. He warned: “The officers of Congress, may come upon you now, fortified with all the terrors of paramount federal authority. Excisemen taxmen may come in multitudes; for the limitation of their numbers no man knows. They may, unless the general government be restrained ... go into your cellars and rooms, and search, ransack, and measure, everything you eat, drink, and wear.”¹³

So, the founders committed to the Bill of Rights and empowered the Judiciary, specifically the Supreme Court, with the power to rule on the Constitutionality of an act of Legislation.

He also argued for something to restrain the Judiciary and feared if they did not, the judiciary would become tyrannical.

Patrick Henry said, “Power is the great evil with which we are contending. We have divided power between three branches of government and erected checks and balances to prevent abuse of power. However, where is the check on the power of the judiciary? If we fail to check the power of the judiciary, I predict that we will eventually live under judicial tyranny.”¹⁴ The founders hammered out a few things Congress can do to check the power of the Judiciary. Still, I cannot find anywhere a provision allowing Congress to overturn a decision of the Supreme Court or any of the lower courts, except through impeachment of a Jurist for treason.

I'm having some problems with my voice, and I must rest it so I can speak on Sunday. But that's okay, I have some friends I want you to meet.

Let's conclude with this quote from Patrick Henry: "You ought to be extremely cautious, watchful, jealous of your liberty...you my lose them forever."¹⁵ "Guard with jealous attention the public liberty. Suspect everyone who approaches that jewel."¹⁶

And conclude with his most famous declaration! Can you guess it? "Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take, but, as for me, give me liberty or give me death."¹⁷

That was the spirit of the "greatest generation." That Spirit came from above — it is the SPIRIT OF LIBERTY!
