Original Air Date: 04.25.26

Segment.01 Hello. I’m Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

President Trump announced: “On May 17th, 2026, we’re inviting Americans from all across the country to come together on our National Mall to pray, give thanks, and rededicate America as One Nation Under God.”¹ We have purchased tickets for a ride to DC

Arlington (aka Ronald Reagan National Airport) to attend the May 17 event: Rededicate 250—to reaffirm America as “One nation, Under God.”² I’ll be attending as an Ambassador for Christ, representing Lighthouse Baptist Church. If any of you plan to attend the event, let me know, and we can meet up on the Mall. Contact me on our listener response hotline: 1.805.314.2114. Contact me via email at www.brainmassage.net, find CONTACT in the menu bar, and send me an email letting me know you are praying for me on this trip, whether or not you plan to be there, and whether you would like to arrange a meeting while there.

Get a load of this! Today, Friday, April 24, 2026, Trump has authorized the resumption of firing squads for federal executions.⁴ We are also looking into “streamlining internal processes to expedite death penalty cases.”⁵ Well, the Bible says, “Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.”⁶ Our “minister of GOD” keeps doing stuff that looks just like GOD is directing him, for he is appointed to execute wrath against the evil doers.⁷

Consent of the Governed is a Biblical doctrine, and an inalienable right of man. But like all rights, it can be subjugated through oppression. Let's talk about the Save America Act.

Ana Paulina wants to attach the Save America Act to the FISA funding Bill.¹¹ That's something, she said, these Senators will crawl over cut glass to pass. She is a fighter! And she knows what battles to choose, what hills to, if necessary, die on — or what battles to make the enemy die on! I like that better!

Did you know that the political doctrine of Consent of the Governed is rooted in the Bible and that it is an intrinsic element of the Gospel? This doctrine places the power of government and, ultimately, the responsibility for its use of power, squarely in the hands of “We, the People.”

These are very serious assertions. For example, did you know that Locke's views on the right of consent and the general acceptance of his views were capitalized on by Paine to rally the Colonists into the Revolutionary War for Independence? I'll save my comments on Paine's painful distortions of Locke's views for my book, THE CONSENT OF THE GOVERNED—A Divinely Endowed Right of Man: The Bible and the Doctrine of Consent. But the fact is, Paine's tract, Common Sense, radicalized the doctrine of consent, including the fact that while man cannot remove the right from nature, for it is intrinsic in God's Creation of man, he can forfeit his right by exercising his power of “consent,” by consenting to tyranny in trade for whatever the Tyrant offers. One of Paine's more famous quotes is “For as in absolute governments the King is law, so in free

countries the law ought to be King, and there ought to be no other.”¹²

John Locke, who drew directly from Scripture more than any of the others responsible for the articulation of this doctrine, is considered by most to be the first in the “modern age” to lay out a biblical grounding for government. He understood the essential principle that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. It should be understood that Locke was saying this is a universal law intrinsic to God’s creation of man: in other words, this is true without regard to tyrannical rule. The Tyrant has a greater dependency on “consent” than the benevolent ruler who recognizes and submits to the doctrine. That’s why tyrants are so jealous to protect their power against the PEOPLE they rule. The means by which they secure “consent” is torture, fear, intimidation, cruelty, and control of their livelihoods. Whether it is through seduction by bribes, or destruction of the people’s will to resist, the dictator depends upon the willing surrender of the people to his rule, to his domination.

In other words, every dictator depends on “consent.” However, GOD has given consent to mankind, and only those who surrender it in fear or trade it away in covetousness will live under tyranny. Every people who rise and declare: “Give me liberty, or give me death,” will be free. No tyrant can rule a man freed by truth, in whom dwells the Spirit of Liberty. And that, my friend, is the whole reason tyrannical governments cannot allow TRUTH, or countenance the SPIRIT OF CHRIST. For the truth will make you FREE,¹³ and where the Spirit of the LORD is, there is Liberty.¹⁴

There are many examples of the right of consent to be found in the Bible. One of the most powerful declarations of this principle is found in Jesus' words: "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!"¹⁵ He would! But they denied Him their consent: They "would not"!

The Demoncrats hate the Consent Doctrine. They want to destroy it by rigging our elections. They do not want the American people deciding who rules them; they want the Demoncrat Party to decide that. You've watched this in action. Where, you say? You watched it when they pushed Bernie aside for Hillary, and Biden aside for Kamala. They really need to rename their Party the ANTI-DEMOCRATIC PARTY. Lately, they scuttled Swalwell, I think, to make way for their Billionaire Communist, their answer to Trump. The Demoncrats knew about Swalwell well before his fling with Fang-Fang — the guy is a serial creep, just the sort the Dems like because men of no character are more easily controlled. I think he got in their way, so they dumped him, like Bernie, and Biden.

We expect the Demoncrats to oppose proof of citizenship to register, voter ID to vote, restrictions on mail-in ballots, and same-day in-person voting. But Republicans control the House and Senate, so, what's the problem? Not all Republicans believe in Republican Representative government — at least four of them believe they can use the power the people gave them to manipulate the system and deprive the people of their sacred right to vote.

¹⁴ 2Corinthians 3:17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

¹⁵ Matthew 23:37

Actually, they don't care if you vote; they just want to control the outcome. They are content to let the people vote; they just want to control the outcome, and that's why they refuse to enact common-sense laws to protect the integrity of our elections.

These dirty-dog Republican traitors to the right of Consent are Senators Susan Collins (R-ME), Thom Tillis (R-NC), Lisa Murkowski (R-AK), Mitch McConnell (R-KY), and John Thune (R-SD). Why do they stand opposed to a Bill supported by over 90% of the population—I mean, combined Democrats, Republican, and Independents, overwhelmingly approve of proof of citizenship to register, voter ID to vote, and a great majority want restrictions on mail-in ballots, and enforcement of Election DAY, not week, or month, or months — DAY! But these Senators arrogantly refuse to yield to the will of the PEOPLE.

So, how does the doctrine of consent work in this case? We rise up and make it too big to rig, again! We overwhelm these devils in November. It is TIME FOR EVERY GOOD MAN TO COME TO THE AID OF HIS COUNTRY. I remember typing that hundreds of times in school when learning how to use a keyboard. I don't know what they use now, but I doubt that it's what I learned with. Nevertheless, patriotism is an instinct, and though it lay dormant as a coal, it needs only to be ignited by the fire of LIBERTY to flame brightly again in the souls of young and old. Rise up, America, seize your power and USE IT to send a message to Washington that these traitors and every devil that controls their evil minds will not soon forget.

Okay, I need to conclude this segment—you heard that the Virginia referendum narrowly passed, allowing the Democrat-led Legislature to intentionally redraw its state's Districts, increasing Democrat control of Virginia from a narrow margin of something like 6 to 5 to an outrageous 10 Democrats to 1 Republican. A lower court has issued a permanent injunction against certifying the election results, and, according to the former Virginia AG, Ken Cuccinelli, the Supreme Court of Virginia is very likely to rule that what the legislature did is contrary to the State's constitution. Listen to his reasoning here.¹⁶ The man is a lifelong Virginian and intimately knowledgeable of Virginia politics and Law, so he's worth hearing. He says he would not be surprised if the Virginia Supreme Court rules unanimously against this Bill.

The fight to protect election integrity is a battle over the right of consent. Don't consent to the theft of our voice. Protect our elections and our sacred right to vote.

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march—an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

Bianco, Hilton, or write-in candidate Che-Ahn: in either case, is it a new deal for Californians? Why Evangelical Christians have a hard time navigating the political landscape, and what we need to do about it.

Confusion over what is wisdom from “above” and “below”: James 3:15-17. This is illustrated in Luke 16:8: “For the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.”

The children of disobedience understand how to get and use political power. The children of light have been uninterested in political power, and have yielded that sphere of our governance to Satan's children of this world. We were deceived into thinking it had nothing to do with us, that the pulpit had nothing to say about politics. This began under that Devil President Johnson, the one who very likely had a hand in the assassination of JFK. By the way,

¹⁶ <https://x.com/jackunheard/status/2047426692105331144?s=20>

I'm preparing a special for the weekend of November 22, the anniversary of the assassination, that you'll find intriguing!

Anyway, one problem Evangelical Christians have when attempting to engage in politics is that we don't have a heritage that provides any understanding of how the system works and how things get done. My book, God's War, provides the biblical basis for believers' full engagement in politics. And this is needed because, unlike the Catholics, we have shied away from politics, and, consequently, we've surrendered that sphere to darkness. I provide a biblical understanding of a believer's role in every sphere of life on this planet. Right now, you can get a hardbound copy of God's War for only 10 plus shipping. Go to booksatdbp.com and order a copy today.

Another thing believers don't understand is the role of money in politics: Ecclesiastes 10:19 "Money answereth all things," counterbalanced with 1 Timothy 6:10 "For the love of money is the root of all evil." While we do not compromise for money, like "they" do. We must have it to succeed. Believers have got to be discerning where they invest and whom they support, but investment and support are needed.

Finally, it all comes down to a failure to rightly understand faith, leading to confusing it with folly. Look, God does not wave a magic wand to make things happen. He uses means, not magic. If we foolishly presume on God, well, let's just say there is something called presumptuous sin. In fact, Peter ties this to those who "despise government."¹⁷ The word despise means to disrespect or dismiss. Of course, that applies to someone who has contempt for the rule of law, but it would also apply to anyone who disregards government as irrelevant to them or their lives. It's certainly a sin for preachers, men of God, to have contempt for speaking the TRUTH of GOD's word to government—or giving direction from the word of GOD to those appointed by Him for the exercise of the powers He ordained, whose officers are by Him called “ministers of GOD.”¹⁸ What sort of arrogance is this, that Christians suppose they can withdraw the LIGHT of God's Word from government and then complain at the darkness prevails. Of course it does. You withdrew the LIGHT.

The Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC) was indicted on eleven criminal counts.¹⁹ Champion of the left against White Supremacy, the SPLC was sending donors' dollars to the KKK. Why am I not surprised? Shouldn't that surprise us? Oh, I know why, it's because the SPLC,²⁰ with the ACLU, is one of the two legal arms of the Demoncrat Party, and, as we all know, the Demoncrats are the party of Jim Crow, the party of the KKK, the party of the CCP, the party of Black Face—literally, and metaphorically. Think about it! So, no, I'm not at all surprised.

Among the charges are these:

1. From at least 2014 through 2023 (with the underlying informant network dating back to the 1980s), the SPLC allegedly secretly funneled more than $3 million in donor funds to individuals associated with or in leadership positions within violent extremist groups.

2. Named groups include the Ku Klux Klan, United Klans of America, Unite the Right, National Alliance, National Socialist Movement, Aryan Nations-affiliated Sadistic Souls Motorcycle Club, National Socialist Party of America (American Nazi Party), and American Front.

3. The SPLC is accused of using false representations and omissions when soliciting donations—telling donors the money would fight extremism while allegedly using it to pay the very groups it publicly denounced.

4. To conceal the payments, the organization allegedly created fictitious entities and bank accounts, made false statements to banks, and engaged in concealment money laundering.²¹

The SPCL is accused of “manufacturing racism to justify its existence,” and a “massive fraud operation to deceive their donors.” [IBID.]

The SPLC CEO, Bryan Fair, denies all allegations and claims they are “politically motivated.” The SPLC is not politically motivated. Of course, if you ask Maajid Nawaz, a former Islamist who turned liberal Islam reformer and founded the Quilliam Foundation, to counter Muslim extremism, you will hear differently. The SPLC placed this gentle and reasonable organization on its “Hate group list.”²² Right up there with Pro-Life Christians, like the Family Research Council²³ — the SPLC Demoncrat legal bulldog—I call them Bully-Dog—and they raged against Dobson’s organization because of the audacity of believing what the BIBLE says about homosexuality, the murdering of babies in their mother’s womb—so the SPLC has, from its inception, equated policy opponents as “violent extremists.”

This raging antichrist organization has targeted the Alliance Defending Freedom, the Ruth Institute, and many others, as “hate groups.” They rage against the bands and cords of Christ, like traditional marriage, and religious liberty — SPLC wants these bands and cords cast off. The Society for Evidence-Based Gender Medicine was attacked by the SPLC,²⁴ credentialed medical professionals falsely smeared as “pseudoscience,” you know, the Fauci kind of “science,” that’s the kind they like, but people who point out the obvious biological distinctions of male and female, the SPLC calls that “pseudoscience”; the antichrist Southern Poverty Law Center uses its resources to “break the bands and cords” of Christ, in their rage against His rule over the Earth.

The SPLC has attacked Moms For Liberty, PragerU, and Turning Point USA as “hard right” organizations and “extremists,” but when challenged to explain why they don’t call out the “hard left,” they respond that they are “not really set up to cover the extreme left.”²⁵ But they were very busy lumping orthodox Christians with Nazis.²⁶

The Vice President will not be accompanying them. Perhaps the Vice President and the President will let Steve and Jared find out if they are serious this time and report back.

Guess what? The hardliner that was forced into the lead of the negotiations by the IRGC command, reputed to be a strong boss, the guy everyone else would have to “check” with before anything could be accepted, the guy who pushed the non-negotiable nuclear issue back into the talks, Mohammad Bagher Ghalibaf — I guess he got fired. A report from Iran International (April 24, 2026—today), reported that “Ghalibaf was reprimanded for attempting to include the nuclear issue in talks with Washington and was forced to resign.”³³ The IRGC is denying Ghalibaf was “fired,” and insisting there are no plans for talks in Pakistan, that Araghchi is not going to Pakistan to renew talks with the U.S.³⁴

So, it looks like the fractured leadership in Iran is about to break!

Ishmael long ago: “I am for peace: but when I speak, they are for war.”³⁵ Curious, he mentions Mechech and Kedar in verse 5 — Mechech is commonly associated with Russia, but most identify it with Turkey. Kedar is associated with the Arab nomads—descended from Ishmael. He describes himself as “dwelling” or sojourning among them, living in their tents, and said, “My soul hath long dwelt with him that hateth peace. I am for peace: but when I speak, they are for war” (Psalm 120:5-7).

Trump can certainly see his own dealings with these children of Ishmael in Psalm 120.
