THE CRUELTY OF THOSE WHOSE SYMPATHIES FOLLOW THEIR POLITICS / ARE YOU AN AMERICAN? HOW TO KNOW!

Original Air Date: 06.27.26

Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

There is no greater cruelty than what comes from someone whose sympathies follow their politics. You must also watch out for politics that follow sympathies. But that's less dangerous.

Understanding who you are has a very large part of fulfilling your potential.

The Kingdom suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.

It's time for your brain massage®:

[TRUTH]

There is no greater cruelty than what comes from someone whose sympathies follow their politics. You must also watch out for politics that follow sympathies. But that's less dangerous.

If you are male but too weak to get in the ring with a man, you probably are not going to go far as a boxer. If you deny what you are and force your way into female sports so you can have an advantage and beat up a girl, you are a scoundrel, a puke, a pusillanimous coward, a gutless predator, without heart or soul, a contemptible miscreant, depraved, and deranged! My great-grandfather would say you are not worth the buckshot it would take to send you to ... Hades! Haha!

You know hell is a Bible word, right? I question “sensitivities” too refined for Bible words. If Jesus can warn us of the unquenchable fire and not wince, nor sashay demurely when He speaks of the torment of hell, not hesitate to call those bastards who live in sin without chastisement, and dress down the hypocrites who think themselves more righteous than God, calling them out as vipers, and snakes, full of dead men’s bones, I think we can humble ourselves to His righteousness—and why is the Brain Masseur® doing this?

The version of “Christianity” that is truly hellish is that which elevates its own righteousness above the Bible, above GOD, and plays on the sensitivities of the weak-minded, and self-righteous, to feeeeeelllllll sad for the cows we eat and virtually ignore the predation of child molesters, who cry with the crocodile a crock of pretentious tears about the plight of the druggies, whacked out on Fentanyl, courtesy of China via Mexico, then curse Trump’s efforts to stop this travesty through the enforcement of immigration law, and pressure to put these people in hospitals instead of letting them wallow in their own feces, and vomit on the streets, littering the gutters with dead or near dead bodies of people who almost certainly have a father somewhere, a mother, a brother or sister, someone that cares for them, and has no idea where they are.

China supplies the precursor chemicals needed to create the drug to the Sinaloa and Jalisco New Generation Cartels.^{1 2 3} These organizations have been declared “Foreign Terrorist Organizations by the U.S. government. [IBID.1] China is providing material support to two Foreign Terrorist Organizations with full knowledge that these Cartels are funneling this drug into our country, bringing death and devastation to everyone connected to and who cares about the 72,776 lives lost in 2023 alone.⁴ That’s 199 lives lost every day! That’s more than 8 deaths every hour. More than 450,000 Americans have been killed from synthetic opioid overdoses over the last ten years.⁵ This must stop!

Remember when the liberal answer to our streets being taken over in some communities by druggies was to send them clean needles, or provide sanitary places to shoot up? Yeah, that was a great idea! Look what it has produced. Biden ignored the problem.

Trump’s actions have had an impact. The number of Fentanyl deaths has steadily decreased since he began raising awareness among the American public in 2024 and has continued to decline due to the effects of his policies since he took office.

One thing he has done is pressure China to stop supplying the Cartels. In his first term, in May of 2019, he secured an agreement with Xi to place all fentanyl-related substances under national control. That's easy for a dictator to do, right? I mean, how many Bibles do you suppose China interdicts every year? I know of one case in which a Chinese Christian sought to bring Bibles into China to distribute them to those interested. He was arrested, and 200,000 Bibles, New Testaments, and other Christian literature were confiscated. He received a 3-year sentence to a Chinese prison, not like our vacation resorts here, by the way. Members of his family were also imprisoned.

I think China knows how to enforce import and export regulations. They were shipping finished Fentanyl, ready for distribution and consumption,⁶ and Trump pressured Xi to stop it by putting it under national control. Can you believe this! What if the U.S. were sending finished, completed BIBLES into China?

Responding to Trump's pressure, Xi choked off shipment of finished, ready for distribution, Fentanyl to the U.S., but ignored the shipping of the precursor chemicals needed to manufacture it to the Cartels in Mexico so they can produce it there, then smuggle it into the U.S.⁷ [IBID.7]

The Chinese ramped up shipping the precursor chemicals, pill presses, laboratory equipment—these wicked, evil people decided they would set up the Cartels and put them in the business of manufacturing the Fentanyl in their home country, nearer the U.S. border, in Mexico.

Under election-year pressure on this issue, because Trump kept turning the light of his campaign on this evil business, Biden held a “summit” with Xi in 2023. Xi promised to do something about it, and made a fair show of compliance—had to help out his buddy, Biden, you know how it is, right? Our DEA finds that Chinese companies continue to be the “principal suppliers of precursor chemicals” used by the Sinaloa and the New Generation Jalisco Cartel (identified as CJNG) to manufacture Fentanyl, which they smuggle into the U.S. [IBID.1,3]

In late 2025, Trump met with Xi and pressed him to designate all 13 major fentanyl precursor chemicals under state regulation, actively regulate seven specified subsidiaries, tighten export controls, require export licenses, and cooperate with the U.S. on this issue.⁸

Once again, China has not fully complied. Even though China expanded its controlled chemical list, strengthened export regulations, and participated in joint investigations, resulting in “some” Chinese suppliers becoming more cautious,⁹ somehow, our DEA’s threat assessment shows Chinese suppliers continue to serve as the principal upstream source of many precursor chemicals used by Mexican cartels to manufacture illicit fentanyl. In fact, the Drug Enforcement Administration published the following statement: China-Based Chemical Manufacturing Companies and Employees Indicted for Alleged Fentanyl Manufacturing and Distribution.¹⁰ Eight China-based chemical companies, in fact, with eight employees, were charged in the Middle District of Florida with federal crimes involving the distribution of synthetic opioids (like Fentanyl) and precursor chemicals used in the production of Fentanyl. Five of these defendants are also charged with money laundering. These were convicted in a cooperative arrangement with China. This is disputed, but here are the facts: 1. Throughout 2024 and early 2025, negotiations regarding Chinese cooperation with the case were strained. 2. U.S. officials “characterized Chinese offers to schedule (declare controlled) certain chemicals as ‘bad faith’ because they largely mirrored existing international obligations.”¹¹ Meaning they were blowing smoke by pretending to be serious and cooperating when, in fact, they were offering nothing more than what was already in place before these offenses occurred. China would not extradite these defendants to U.S. custody. China attempted to use the issue as a bargaining chip to pressure Trump into removing tariffs. [IBID.11] China has its own version of Islamo-negotiation-shell-games. They pretend to cooperate, but the problem persists.

I’ll bet if China got as serious about controlling this business as they do about controlling the day-to-day lives of their citizens, this matter would disappear as fast as a Uyghur (WEE-guhr)¹² holding an I LOVE TRUMP sign in front of Xi’s digs on Chang’an Avenue, Xicheng District, Beijing. Which would be almost as fast a disappearing act as a Uyghur showing up at a public event in the U.S. where Xi is visiting with his bud Biden. Yeah, there are a huge number of assumptions there, but, you know, just sayin’!

Just sayin that I find the Left's callousness appalling, how they plie upon the public conscience with reproach and shame-on-yous for all the unfortunate circumstances and difficulties that fall on those here illegally, arrested and deported for breaking our laws, are able somehow to ignore the wailing of the hearts broken, past broken, crushed beneath the sorrow of a loved murdered, raped, or otherwise abused by the illegal alien, someone who has come into our home uninvited.

You know SCOTUS ruled that Temporary Protected Status is not Permanent Protected Status, and that Trump is perfectly within his lane to exercise his power as the Executive to execute the WILL OF THE PEOPLE and deport these Haitians who have way overstayed their welcome.

Much of the case hinged on the argument of whether someone seeking admittance “at” our border is the same thing as seeking admittance within our borders. I forget which Justice it was who asked, “If someone is standing at your door, does that mean they are in your house”?

Open borders provided cover for those who sneak in with them come to traffic our boys, and girls, young ladies and young men, who use many of them as mules to pack in their Fentanyl, and other murderous drugs — I need to conclude this segment.

Let's pause a moment and remember Laken Riley: while jogging near her school, where she was studying to be a nurse, in 2024, the Venezuelan man that killed her was here illegally.^{13 14} He attacked Riley, attempted to rape her; she struggled; he took a rock and took her life. Do you hear the scream of horror in the hearts of her parents, her friends—does that matter? The consequences of that man's violation of the law, facilitated by Demoncrat immigration policies, especially O’Biden’s policies, were brazenly, coolly ignored as those Demoncrats remained stone-hearted, silent, and seated when Trump acknowledged her memory and her parents’ grief.¹⁵

Jocelyn Nungaray, a 12-year-old, was abducted, raped, and murdered by two Venezuelan illegals in June of 2024.¹⁶ Read, and weep as you do, because unlike those whose hearts can only warm to the illegals’ usefulness to their political ambitions, for them, it was political. The mother testified, “I believe the Biden-Harris Administration’s open border policies are responsible for the death of my 12-year-old daughter.” [IBID.15]

But you, you are human, you are humane, and your sense of compassion is not perverted: read the testimony of the mother of this little girl, here.¹⁷

Why can’t these people “feel anything” for this grieving mother? I’m sure they’ll tell you, It’s not personal, it’s political.

Texas is seeking the death penalty for these monsters. What? Are they not already dead? Tether them to a millstone and cast them into the sea — sounds harsh? Jesus said that is the best thing that could happen to them.¹⁸ Have compassion, give them what would be “better for [them].”

And Rachel Morin, murdered by an illegal, August 5, 2023. This monster entered our country illegally, already a criminal, and then preyed upon one of our kids, raped her, and then murdered her. He was convicted on all counts.¹⁹

¹⁸ Luke 17:1-2, “Then said [JESUS] unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come! It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.”

Jocelyn Nungaray, was strangled to death by a man who stole his way into this country illegally, then stole the life of 12-year-old Jocelyn. The hideous thief, taking advantage of the lax border security of the Biden administration and Harris' negligence as "Border Czar," shattered the hearts and lives of those who loved this kid—and do you want to know something that separates a MAGA American — we would be every bit as furious with any Republican administration that opened our borders, and exposed our children to these villainous rapists and murders because our sympathy, our compassion, is not tied to our politics. You know that if this sort of thing happened under a Republican — if any of those Reagan amnestied into our country — did any of this stuff — and, by the way, I loudly objected to Reagan's amnesty deal with the Democrats — if a Democratic President showed appropriate regard for a life lost connected to a political figure that I supported — brother, I'm going to stand up and show my support for those dear parents because human life is more important than my politics.

I don't have time to go through the rest — but my prayers continue with these families and with Kate Steinle, Mollie Tibbetts, and police officer Corporal Ronil Singh — all murdered by people crossing our border illegally, taking advantage of lax border policies. This does not even take into account the many more who have been killed through sex and drug trafficking perpetrated by some of these people. I'm grateful for a President who has put a stop to that evil policy and restored the integrity of our borders.

Friend, if we are going to turn this country around, we've got to at the very least have the good sense to stay connected to our basic humanity. The illegals being deported have broken our laws. Laken

Riley didn't break anybody's law. Laws exist to protect and promote public peace and goodwill. But they achieve this only when enforced.

Now we need the integrity of our elections restored.

Hold on, I'll be back!

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march—an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

Understanding who you are plays a major role in fulfilling your potential.

You are an American! That means something. There is a certain loyalty expected of anyone who claims citizenship in this country. I mean, suppose you play for the Dodgers. It's important to know who you are. If you don't know what team you are on, you don't know how to dress, where to show up for work, or what team you are playing for when you are on the field.

Are you an American? If you are a Dodger fan, do you sit in the bleachers of the opposing team? No, you are a Dodger fan, you sit with the Dodgers. Do you root for the opposing team? No! You root for your team. If you are an American, you don't root for Communism or Socialism - you don't root for Marxism. You root for America! If you are American, you know what, you root for America, not for a country that has killed almost 1,000 Americans, kidnapped 133, and plotted but failed to kidnap or assassinate 9 Americans.²⁰ Every year, and often multiple times in the year, the Shia Muslims occupying Iran, which is roughly 9 million of the 90 million people in the country, mass in the streets in the tens of thousands, chanting “Death to America.” Why would anyone who calls themselves an American cheer for the Revolutionary Guard?

What do you believe? The core beliefs of America are 1. divinely endowed inalienable rights. Do you believe that! That’s what Americans believe. 2. God has given the right of consent to the governed. Do you believe that? If you believe you can’t manipulate election results by allowing noncitizens to vote, you don’t believe that, and you are not American. You might be a citizen, legally, but you are not an American ideologically or spiritually. God gave to mankind the right of self-governance, which includes the right to consent to government. God ordained governments to provide for the defense of the peace and protection of the persons and prosperity of the people through the enactment and enforcement of laws that derive their just power from the Ordaining Authority of GOD. Men are free to consent to a government, but they are not free to independently alter the government to suit themselves contrary to the will of their neighbors. If you don’t consent to be governed by our Declaration of Independence and the core principle of divinely endowed rights from God, you can leave. But if you elect to be an American, you are obliged to live under the laws of this Land. Again, if you cheat in our elections, you are not an American. Americans believe in the divine right of consent granted to every man who exercises that power through the ballot box. If his candidate does not win, he submits to the governing principle of consent by accepting the expressed will of the people. If an individual, or a conspiracy of individuals contrive to rig elections to achieve an outcome that is not the honest reflection of the consent of the governed, that person is not an American, because that’s not the way Americans behave. We cherish our own individual rights and therefore respect the rights of others. Anyone who steals a vote, or buys a vote, or votes for dead people, and all of that is ANTI-AMERICAN and should lose their citizenship. No one who cheats in elections should be allowed to participate in them.

Okay, so, do you believe that all men are created equal and endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights?

Do you believe in the principle of the consent of the governed?

Do you believe in the inalienable right of free speech, free assembly, of the press, and the conscience?

And do you acknowledge the GOD of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do you confess He alone is the GOD and FATHER of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, do you believe that there is NO KING but JESUS CHRIST — you see, I'm not saying that if you don't believe these things you are not a citizen. Because America is a Christian nation, we believe you have the freedom to deny all of this, but if you do, you are not an American.

I agree with John Jay that a Christian nation should prefer Christians to rule our country. I would add that Americans should prefer Americans to rule their cities, states, and our nation.

What sense would it make to ask the coach of the Giants to take over the Dodgers while he was continuing as coach of the Giants? If his loyalties are to the Giants, what's going to happen if the Giants are playing the Dodgers and the Dodgers are being directed by the Giant's coach? He would not understand the philosophy, plays, or the personalities of the players.

One of the problems we've had for sometime is the people ruling our nation have not been Americans, loyal to Americans and to America.

The Senate is led by people who are not Americans. That's why the leadership does not do what they know the Americans want — Americans believe in the consent of the governed, and this has been stolen from us by clever liars who take the kingdom by force using violence. They don't believe in America.

They don't believe in divine rights endowed by our Creator, they think of themselves as above the people, over them, their "caretakers," instead of their servants.

They don't believe in America, they don't believe in the consent of the governed - they don't want Americans to have free and fair elections that are genuinely expressive of the will of WE THE PEOPLE. They like the system that has been imposed on us, in which certain parties manipulate the elections toward their own desired outcome — so the people in office don't work for WE THE PEOPLE, they work for who it is that puts them in power.

There has been a revival of Americanism, and it's being led by a true American named President Donald J. Trump. He understands that what has happened is that the power that belongs to the people has been taken from them and vested in a bureaucracy that rules us by force and deception.

And now they are making their move to break us out from under the Declaration, the Constitution, and the Bill of Rights.

Do you pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States, and to the Republic for which it stands? Do. you say, "One nation, Under God"? Who is this God?

Do you think the God George Washington prayed to at Valley Forge was the Islamist god they call Allah? Or as Brigham Young said, is Adam God and the only God with whom you have to do? Or is he any of the Hindu gods? When we say, "one nation under GOD" are we talking about the god of mammon?

Do you believe the God George Washington prayed to at Valley Forge is the same God we acknowledge in our pledge of allegiance? George Washington believed in the Godhead: the truth as revealed in Scripture that the LORD our GOD is ONE LORD, and the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God.

If you do, you would be right. America has never acknowledged any GOD but ONE — He has identified Himself as the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He has identified Himself as the God of Israel, and as the God and Father of our LORD JESUS CHRIST.

It's important that you know who you are, what team you're on.

You see, if you believe that every god, that every thing or being that calls itself god, or that every thing, or person anyone decides is god to them, is the GOD of America, you are a Baal worshipper—you worship Baal. You do not worship, nor do you acknowledge the God of America.

So, if you are an American, and you don't acknowledge the God and Father of our LORD JESUS CHRIST as the only true and living GOD, you don't worship the God of America.

Now, does that mean you are not an American citizen?

No, it does not mean that. It does mean, however, that you are not American. You are something else that has come along over the years, that worships some other god, or no god, so you are like the Samaritan woman who did not know what she worshiped.

I must conclude, but on this upcoming July 4th Holiday, think about who you are. As an American citizen, have you forgotten who you are? Have you forgotten the God of our fathers?

This is a very big problem, because the Bible says, "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God" (Psalms 9:17). When the kingdom was given to Nebuchadnezzar, God used him to make something very clear: you might be pagan, and have all sorts of problems, but one thing is a must: you must humble yourself to acknowledge the ONE TRUE AND LIVING GOD, and He is the GOD of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, He is the GOD of Israel, He is the GOD and FATHER of our LORD JESUS CHRIST - and you are His servant. Get that straight before it's too late.
