CEASEFIRE OVER! A NEW CHAPTER FOR THE ART OF THE DEAL /
THE COMMIES ARE COMING / IT'S CLEAR WHO PULLED THE TRIGGER, BUT WHO "REALLY" KILLED CHARLIE KIRK?

Original Air Date: 07.10.26

Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

Trump's second edition of The Art of the Deal should include a chapter on negotiating with terrorist regimes. He is getting a crash course in what Israel has learned over three millennia. Even God has His limits. He said to all mankind: "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool"

(Isaiah 1:18). Some people go beyond the reach of reason, and He has been known to wipe out entire nations, including His own.¹

An ideologically fixed opponent whose aspirations and vision are their “gravity,” confining them to the limits of the orbit of they will honestly negotiate. A people whose morals are driven by their vision and mission, heedless to any other objective standard of morality: honesty, honor, none of that deviates them from their vision and mission. These are people who will use any means to their ends, including deceit and treachery.

It is impossible to reason with them; they have no compunction about wiping out entire civilizations, or killing their own citizens, or even their own families. Trump does understand this, it’s the reason he refuses to sit by while they pursue a weapon of mass destruction. He knows they would use it to advance their vision of an Islamic dominion: they would use it to humble all the world to Islam either by conversion, subjugation, or death.

They cannot be enticed with bribes, though they’ll take any you offer—get my meaning? You cannot depend on them keeping their word because their reasoning is locked in an ideology that has, as I pointed out, one overriding principle driving all actions: dominate the world for Islam, convert the infidel, enslave him, or kill him.

There is no “deal” you can make with these people that they will not find a loophole to exploit, a rationale to justify ignoring its terms, their reasoning is perverse, it heads in only one direction: dominate the world, convert or enslave the infidel, or kill him.

No promise they’ve made, no contract they’ve signed, in their mind justifies, violating the number one priority: world dominion under Islam, the conversion or enslavement of all infidels, or their complete extermination. That’s the worldview that drives them, not honesty, justice for all, liberty, goodness—none of these things. They pursue one overriding priority: world dominion under Islam, requiring all infidels to convert to Islam, be enslaved to Muslim rule, or die. Their moral code has one overriding principle, and in the case of Shia Islamists, it is to dominate the world under Islam, which requires all infidels to convert to Islam, consent to be ruled by Muslims, or be killed.

There is a reason GOD instructed Saul to completely eliminate the Amalekites.² When your opponent's vision and mission are set on evil, it's impossible to negotiate with them.

Under the terms of the New Testament stewardship of the kingdom, Romans 13:1-6 defines the rules for rulers. It is based upon the rule for rulers that God communicated to us through David: “The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, He

² 1 Samuel 15:3 Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass. The Amalekites descended from Eliphaz, the grandson of Esau, from a concubine by the name of Timna, the daughter of Lotan, first son of Seir (Genesis 36:20-30). We have no record of Seir's genealogy before him. The prevalence of the children of Ishmael in the land suggests Seir was likely a descendant of Ishmael. But this is speculation. Remember that Ishmael is Abraham's seed through the Egyptian Hagar, and God rejected him as heir to Abraham's promise; this tells you that the mother matters. God described Ishmael as a wild man (Genesis 16:12, “And he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.”)

that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God” (2 Samuel 23:3). God gave “the kingdom” to the Gentile nation that brings forth the fruit of the kingdom.³ Today, that’s America! That nation must acknowledge Christ is KING, and its rulers must be just, ruling in the fear of GOD. In this spirit, it must use the sword of judgment judiciously and responsibly to execute wrath upon doers of evil (Romans 13:1-6). It must also recognize and reward the righteous. A ruler has a primary responsibility to the nation bearing the stewardship of the Kingdom, and ready to act justly in the world as one nation UNDER GOD.]

The Commies are coming. Our nation has “forgotten God, days without number” (Jeremiah 2:32). Most don’t even know the way to His House anymore. We have forgotten to pray and forgotten His ways. Looking for a “new way” we have strayed from the right way—so God calls to you—stand ye in the way, and see, and ask for the old paths where is the good way, and walk therein” (Jeremiah 6:16a).

But now, the Commies are coming: a political system responsible for the ruin and destruction of more than 100 million lives in the last century alone. A system of oppression, violence, murder, and theft. Call it Marxism, Communism, or Socialism, these are only different varieties of the same thing: transfer dependency from GOD to government. But when the government can’t fulfill the role of GOD, because it can’t, it becomes a tyrannical god, the god of this world.

The communist-promoting party, the Democratic Socialists of America (DSA), has grown to over 100k members and has more than 150 nationally endorsed candidates for this year’s election cycle. They’ve had 38 electoral victories so far (that’s Federal and Local elections).⁴ The following were endorsed by the Communists: Claire Valdez, US House (won her primary—NY), Chevalier, US House (won Primary—NY), ³ Matthew 21:43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

Colorado: Kiros (won primary—US House), Chris Rabb (US House, won primary—State Representative).⁵

Arizona, California, Georgia, Maryland, New York, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Utah, Vermont, and Maine had Nazi Pratner but he got pushed out by the unDemocrats: all Communist-lite, some full-blown commies, some sleeper-cell types: it depends on what they've got to do to win, all with documented Democratic Socialists of America endorsements: 30 in all.⁶

The DSA is concentrating on 2026, focusing on Congress, state legislatures, city councils, mayors, and school boards — keep that in mind: School Boards.⁷

They infiltrated our schools; this began in the early 1900s. It began to win adherents among some elites and was in vogue among the sophists. By 1965, it began to receive more favorable treatment in American schools in the “EDUCATION” Departments, and began to find acceptance in Humanities courses.⁸ This is the beginning of what was called “the New Left.” By 1976, Samuel Bowles and Herbert Gintis examined the thesis of Schooling in Capitalist America, and Education historians describe this book as the “beginning of the emergence of Marxist thought in American education scholarship.”⁹

Michael Apple's book, Ideology and Curriculum, has been described by historians as helping initiate a broad turn toward Marxist analysis in curriculum theory, drawing on Gramsci's work and the evolving theory called "critical social theory."¹⁰ The precursor of "critical race theory"?

By 1985, Marxism had become an accepted analytical framework in some academic disciplines: sociology, education, cultural studies, literary criticism, geography, anthropology, and had begun to encroach into some history departments.¹¹ During this period, from 1985 to the present, Marxist thought began creeping into our K-12 public schools through the influence of teachers trained in the colleges and universities. [IBID-11]

So, Marxism began receiving a welcome into our academia, extending its influence all the way down into our High Schools in the 1970s. [IBID.-11].

The result is that we now have a quintessential American City, an Icon of Americana, the birthplace of at least two widespread revivals in America. First, in Upstate New York, beginning around 1800 and reaching its height in the 1820s-1830s—God sent the famous Finney revivals, and then, only a few years later, Jeremiah Lamphier started a small prayer meeting in New York that became the Fulton Street prayer revival (1857-1858). Dwight L. Moody held very influential meetings in New York, and many great evangelists after him.

These revivals sprang up around the same time Modernism and human secularism were stirring up controversy. These revivals centered on the Gospel, of course, but there was a clear emphasis on rebuking and reproving the sins of the age: abolitionism (slavery), temperance (prohibition), the encroachment of modernism into our schools, and other concerns about social and political degeneracy.

We need a revival in America, a return to God and Country, faith and family. America, REMEMBER your founders' faith—REMEMBER your CREATOR — find your way back to Our FATHER'S HOUSE — the church, the house of GOD, the pillar and ground of the truth. Come on HOME! That's the first step for the prodigal: getting sick of the slop of this world, sick of the poisoning of your soul with the sickness that is destroying our liberties, robbing us of our FREEDOMs? Come home to the Father's House. See you in church.

When I return from the break, I'll explain the critical role of Charlie Kirk in taking the LIGHT of GOD's WORD into the belly of the beast — the institutions of education — the devil's den, his workshop — where he sets his vile tongue into the ears of our young people and lulls them into a socialist stupor — taking advantage of their naiveté, their lack of experience and lack of knowledge to seduce their minds into his control.

Charlie was breaking into the darkness, he was “Piercing the Darkness,” and breaking Satan's spell on the minds of our children—and that's why “they” had to silence him; that's why Satan made him his primary target.

Who really killed Charlie Kirk?

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march—an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

Who killed Charlie? Why everyone who has looked at the evidence with an IQ above 50 is convinced Tyler Robinson killed Charlie Kirk. The facts all point in one direction—GUILTY!

A lot of what's coming out in the courtroom lately was already circulating in the news. But some important additional facts have emerged, and the pieces of the story are coming together, completing the picture.

Before we get started, did you catch the connection? I am sure most of you did. The current invasion of Communism began long ago, and it found its entrance into our nation in our private (but heavily subsidized) universities first, and through these into our public schools and liberal pulpits. This trained up a veritable army of what Rush called young-skulls-full-of-mush who were enthusiastically recruited into the Democrat Party—the Party of Jim Crow, KKK, Segregation, and the Black Plantation conceived by racist Lyndon Baines Johnson, who designed a system he thought would purchase the Black vote away from the Republican Party, for Democrats forever. The corruption in that Party finally ate away its soul and welcomed the DEVIL in — Satan has taken over the unDemocratic Party. And through that Party, Communism is entering into positions of serious political power in our country.

This makes the issue of election integrity all the more important, and I've put together some great material on it. But right now I want to hit an even more important and critical issue: Who killed Charlie Kirk? And, no, Candace, it wasn't Erika.

Some of you have noticed that I have not weighed in heavily on that issue—personally, I think it's so bizarrely wrong-headed, so morally bankrupt and senseless, that I have not been able to take it seriously, beyond reflecting on how seriously this has hurt Erika and the children.

It has exposed many corrupt hearts hidden within the MAGA movement.

I have this to say to Erika: I hope you hear this. Dear Erika, the sword that pierces your soul is thrust by your enemies and ours—but GOD has a purpose and a plan, as I'm sure you are well aware.

Listen to what the mysterious Simeon said to Mary, concerning the Christ child: "And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against; (Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed" (Luke 2:34-35).

The Bible says we who are birthed unto God by His Spirit (by the way, the Holy Ghost is mentioned in relation to Simeon three times in the short passage describing him—Luke 2:25-27), and we are made joint-heirs with Christ (Romans 8:17), and by Him made kings and priests unto GOD (Revelation 1:6), charged to let Jesus Himself manifest through our “mortal flesh” (2 Corinthians 4:11). I think most who knew Charlie would agree, few believers showed more of Jesus through their mortal lives than he did—so, forgive me if I offend you with my analogy—but Charlie was being used of GOD to expose hearts in a manner similar to how His Saviour did. That is the calling of every disciple of Christ!

God used His child, Charlie, to shine the LIGHT of His TRUTH into the darkness of this Gentile nation that God raised up to steward the kingdom at this time in history, and God set Charlie to be for the fall and rising again of many in this One Nation Under God, and made him a “sign to be spoken against,” and, Erika, it is understandable that his death would strike you like a sword piercing your heart, as our Saviour’s death pierced the heart of Mary, and all of this was intended by GOD to serve an important divine purpose: that the thoughts of many hearts would be revealed (Luke 2:34-35).

Who killed Charlie?

All the evidence points in one direction!

A handwritten note from Tyler Robinson (alleged Kirk murderer) to his trans-lover flashed on the courtroom screen. It was not supposed to be made public, and the judge quickly had it removed. It said, “I had the opportunity to take out Charlie Kirk, and I took it. I don’t know if I will/have succeeded, but I had hoped to make it home to you.” Hmm. Pretty damning.¹²

Want the whole note: it's even more damning than you thought. Robinson wrote: "If you are reading this per my text, then I am so sorry. I left the house this morning on a mission and set an auto text. I am likely dead, or facing a lengthy prison sentence. I had the opportunity to take out Charlie Kirk, and I took it. I don't know if I will/have succeeded, but I had hoped to make it home to you."

It goes on, but the rest is outside the screenshot I have. Notice that this was written before the event, but Robinson anticipated that his "lover" might be reading his letter either before or after the deed was done, hence the use of will/have.

And then we have the testimony from his lover - Twiggs.

Twiggs testified that "[Robinson] confessed three times to murdering the conservative leading light, on a video deposition.

His name is Lance Twiggs, and he was seen speaking publicly for the first time Thursday, July 9, 2026, in a pre-recorded deposition, told investigators he awoke the day after the Sept. 10 assassination to Robinson walking around their apartment, before he broke down and declared he "wishes he hadn't done it" and that he was about to turn himself in.¹³

Here is more evidence: Robinson texted Twiggs: "shouldn't be long until I can come home, but I gotta grab my rifle still. To be honest I had hoped to keep this secret till I died of old age. I am sorry to involve you." This was taken from a text thread of conversation between Robinson and Twiggs. It continues:

Twiggs: " You weren't the one who did it right????"

Robinson: "I am, I'm sorry."

Robinson goes on, in this text thread, to say "I am still ok my love, but am stuck in Orem for a little while longer yet. Shouldn't be long until I can come home, but I gotta grab my rifle still, to be honest, I had hoped to keep this secret till I died of old age. I am sorry to involve you.” [IBID.-13]

¹³ <https://nypost.com/2026/07/09/us-news/tyler-robinsons-trans-lover-lance-twiggss-seen-in-police-interview-shown-in-court-for-first-time/>

Another message thread shows Robinson joking about looking like the suspect who killed Kirk, then saying to friends: “It was me at UVU yesterday...I’m surrendering.”¹⁴ Let’s look at that text exchange.

On the social media app called Discord, Robinson posts, ‘Hey guys, I have bad news for you all. It was me at UVU yesterday. I’m sorry for all this. I’m surrendering through a sheriff friend in a few moments. Thanks for all the good times and laughs; you’ve all been so amazing. Thank you all for everything.’”

Now you know why I say everyone who has looked at the evidence with an IQ above 50 is convinced Tyler Robinson killed Charlie Kirk. The facts all point in one direction—GUILTY!

But I think there are many more who are culpable for this heinous, vile murder. I believe in free speech, but it’s already against the law to incite violence, and there is no question in any reasonable mind but that the Democrats are the Party of hate, and call for violence and the use of force to take the kingdom from under the stewardship of Christians to bring it entirely into the power of darkness. Charlie was an existential threat to the power of darkness.

You know the Bible talks about the power of darkness in Ephesians 6:12, and we are challenged to suit up in Spiritual Armor and “wrestle against principalities, powers, the rulers of the darkness of this world, and spiritual wickedness in high places.” It was the power of darkness that worked in the hearts of the children of disobedience in a massive spiritual conspiracy to martyr Charlie Kirk.

Charlie was moved by the Spirit of Christ, and through him, the TRUTH was spoken boldly, and the hearts of young people were powerfully impacted.

But greater is the Spirit in us than the spirit that is in the world, so how did darkness win?

It didn't!

Or, I should say, it's up to us to make sure it doesn't. What Satan means for evil, God works to our good! Romans 8:28—besides John 3:16, this is the most important verse in the Bible for understanding God rightly and for undergirding our hope as we go forward in this spiritual war in which we are engaged.

In a manner of speaking, Charlie's martyrdom pierced all our hearts, and it may have revealed something there we had forgotten. Our way to the Father's House; that's a good place to start. The courage of our faith, the boldness for truth that he so well modeled. The commission itself: to shine the light of TRUTH into the darkness of this world. And to live our lives in service, not to our own will, but to His. Charlie prayed regularly: "God, use me for your will today!" Remember!
